STATE OF VERMONT,

ADJUTANT AND INSPECTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE, }
Woodstock, Oct. 1, 1866. }

To His Excellency

The Governor of the State of Vermont:

SIR:

I have the honor herewith to transmit my Report, as Adjutant and Inspector General, from the date of my last Annual Report, October 1, 1865, to October 1, 1866.

I am, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

PETER T. WASHBURN,

Adjutant and Inspector General.

REPORT.

THE obligations resting upon the State of Vermont, in connection with the active prosecution of the war for the preservation of the Union, have been performed ; all the volunteer organizations from the State have been mustered out of the service of the United States ; the military records of the State have been completed and perfected, so far as is at present practicable ; all accounts for expenditures in connection with this Department, outstanding at the commencement of the present year, have been called in, so far as known, examined, verified and transmitted to the proper officer of the State for adjustment and payment and presentation to the War Department of the United States for re-payment to the State, and the occasion and necessity for the performance of the unusual and extraordinary duties, and the exercise of the enlarged powers, with their attendant responsibilities, which have devolved upon this office during the continuance of the war, cease, in a great measure, with the submitting of this Report.

MUSTER OUT OF TROOPS.

At the date of my last Annual Report, there were yet remaining in the service of the United States the Seventh Regiment of Vermont Veteran Volunteers, then stationed at Clarksville, Texas, and a Battalion, consisting of four companies of the Ninth Regiment of Vermont Volunteers, then stationed at Portsmouth, Va. All the other organizations, which had been sent from the State, and which had contributed as largely, as has been shown by my previous Reports, to the reputation and honor of the State, and the success of the national arms, had ceased to exist as such, and the officers and men composing them had laid aside their arms, and, assuming again the garb of citizens, had quietly mingled with the masss of the community and returned to their original peaceful employments, with no indications left of the terrible events which during the four preceding years had taxed the energies and resources of the State to their utmost, except the record of their gallant deeds of bravery, the maimed veterans, whose appearance among us makes constant appeal to our sympathies and our respect, and the vacant places in many a household, eloquent of the remembrance of the gallant men whose lives have been surrendered in defence of the great principles of freedom, unity and equality before the law.

The SEVENTH REGIMENT was removed from Clarksville to Brownsville, Texas, August 4, 1865, where they remained, in the performance of such guard and other duty as was necessary for the enforcement of the law and the preservation of order, through the winter, when they were mustered out of service at Brownsville, on the fourteenth of March, 1866, with twenty-two commissioned officers and three hundred and twenty-six enlisted men, and returned to Brattleboro', where they arrived on the fifth of April, and were paid and discharged. Efforts were made to procure their earlier discharge from the service, but were unsuccessful; and probably the ultimate welfare of the officers and men was thereby promoted, since a return to the State in the midst of the rigors of a Vermont winter, after their four years of acclimation in a Southern climate, might have seriously affected their general health, and perhaps have cost valuable lives.

Since the publication of my last Annual Report, I have received from Colonel Holbrook a more detailed report of the movements and operations of the regiment in connection with the siege of Mobile, than had been previously transmitted, and I annex his report in Appendix E. The assurance given by Col. Holbrook of the discipline and gallant bearing of his regiment is fully verified by General Order No. 12, Head-Quarters Military Division of the Gulf,—a copy of which I also annex in Appendix E.

The Battalion of the NINTH REGIMENT remained in Virginia, in the performance of ordinary camp, guard and provost duty, through the autumn, and were mustered out of service on the first day of December, 1865, with twelve commissioned officers and three hundred and two enlisted men, and returned to Burlington, where they were paid and discharged.

RECORDS AND FILES.

During the war, a mass of records, files and returns have accumulated in this office, all containing information of value to the State and to the individual officers and soldiers in service from the State, as well as to every town, which has furnished its quota of troops, but almost valueless, unless properly arranged, consolidated and indexed. While the war was in progress, and unceasing labor was required to furnish the quota of the State under the frequent calls for men, this work could only be done to the extent which was necessary for the immediate purposes of this and the other departments of the State. During the present year all these sources of information, including the Rosters of volunteers enlisted during the war, the regimental and hospital returns, the records of burials at the several rebel prisons, the muster-in-rolls, bi-monthly muster and pay rolls and the muster-out rolls, the enlistment contracts and records of town credits, have been carefully examined, compared and verified; all material facts, not before noted, or varying from previous reports, have been entered upon the Rosters, and the whole transcribed upon new Rosters in such extended form as to show, at a glance, the entire military record of each officer and man, so far as it is material and is known.

I have prepared, and publish herewith, as the first part of Appendix B, a complete Roster of all the commissioned officers who have served in Vermont organizations during the war,—showing the name, age, rank, company, regiment, date of commission, date of muster into the service of the United States, residence at the time of joining the service, and military record, while in the service, of each officer. I also annex as Part II of Appendix B, an alphabetical index to the Roster of commissioned officers, with references to the page of Part I, on which the name of each officer appears.

I also annex, as Part III of Appendix B, a Roster of the Seventh and Ninth regiments, and of the Unassigned Recruits,—showing the names and military record of all men not heretofore finally accounted for, or shown remaining in the service, in my previous annual Reports. And, as Part IV of Appendix B, I annex a Table of Corrections of the Rosters published as Appendix D of the Report for the year ending October 1, 1864, and as Appendix D of the Report for the year ending October 1, 1865, rendered necessary in part by returns and reports received since those Reports were published, and in part by errors of the press, and by a more thorough and systematic examination and comparison of rolls and returns on file, not previously practicable.

FINAL STATEMENT.

I am enabled also to present, as the result of the completion of the records in this office, a final statement, carefully prepared and believed to be accurate, showing, by companies, regiments, and in the aggregate, the number of original members of each organization from this State, the additions to each by promotion or transfer from other organizations, and by recruits, the loss sustained by each by promotion or transfer to other organizations, or to the army of the United States, by death in action, from wounds, from disease or otherwise, by discharge, for resignation, for wounds, for disease or otherwise, and by desertion, and the number in each organization finally mustered out of the service of the United States.

I annex, in Appendix C, a transcript of this final statement, showing the number of original members, the gain and loss and the number mustered out of service, by regiments, batteries and detached companies, and in the aggregate.

It will be observed, that of twenty-eight thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven officers and men, who have served in Vermont organizations, all are finally accounted for, with the exception of seventy-five men. The number not finally accounted for, when the last regiment had been mustered out of the service of the United States, was much larger,—being nearly seven hundred,—somewhat reduced, however, by a more thorough examination of rolls and returns previously received,—but yet leaving more than five hundred men, of whom no record had been obtained. Many of these men had died in rebel prisons, many had been discharged from hospitals in various parts of the country, and no returns forwarded, and many, though borne upon the rolls as absent, sick, or wounded, proved to be in fact, deserters. For the purpose of obtaining all the information possessed by the friends of these men, circulars were addressed to the selectmen of each town in the State, to which any missing men was originally credited, requesting them to obtain and transmit any information practicable. Much credit is due to the several Selectmen for the care which they exercised and the labor which they performed in procuring and reporting such facts as were material. By their assistance, I was enabled to complete the record of more than three hundred and fifty men, of whom no final report had been previously received. The names of the remaining men, not finally accounted for, were published in Circular No. 4,—annexed in Appendix A—copies of which were sent to the selectmen of each town, to each postmaster, and to the several newspapers in the State; and the information obtained thereby has reduced the number, not finally accounted for, to seventy-five, as above stated. Having thus made every effort, which has occurred to me as being practicable, or efficient, I know of no source from which further information can be obtained, and am therefore compelled to leave the military records of the State, to this extent, incomplete.

TOTAL NUMBER OF MEN FURNISHED.

To the Final Statement of Vermont organizations, I have also annexed a statement of the number of re-enlistments in the field, the number of enlistments in the State for the United States army and navy, and the number of drafted men who paid commutation,—showing that the whole number of troops furnished by the State during the war is thirty-four thousand two hundred and thirty-eight,—being an excess over the aggregate quotas under all calls, of five hundred and nine men.

The number credited to the State by the War Department is thirty-five thousand two hundred and forty-two,—exceeding the number shown by the records in this office by one thousand and four,—and giving the State a credit, over the aggregate quotas under all calls, of fifteen hundred and thirteen men.

It is not possible, that the credits given by the War Department include any men enlisted in the State, whose enlistment is not shown by the records in this office, since it is not probable, that any man entitled to the state pay of seven dollars per month would omit to claim it, and the Rolls in the Treasurer's office, from which the payments have been made, are based upon and correspond with the Rolls in this office. But the discrepancy may be and probably is to be accounted for, to a considerable extent, by enlistments in organizations of other States to the credit of this State, which appeared upon the Muster In Rolls of those organizations and were not reported to the State. Application has been made to the War Department for a statement of the credits given from this source, but without success,—the records of the Department having been so kept as to render it impracticable, without the expenditure of too much time, to ascertain their number. The credits in the War Department were also made, to a considerable extent, from the weekly reports of the Provost Marshals and of the Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General of the State, which were made in numbers, and not by name ; and it is probable that some error may have occurred in the records of credits in the War Department from this manner of making the account.

ENGAGEMENTS.

I have also prepared, and annex in Appendix D, a list of the engagements, with the date of each, in which each regiment, battery and detached company from this State participated and bore honorable part during the war. It shows, that Vermont troops participated in the first and last battles of the war, and presents a record, of which the officers and men of the several organizations are entitled to be proud. The torn fragments of colors displayed in the State House, the maimed and war-worn veterans whom we daily meet, the soldiers' monuments in our burial grounds, the long rows of head boards in the National Cemeteries, the records of the martyrs to freedom murdered in Southern prisons, as well as the military records of the State and the grateful memories of the people, attest the fearless fidelity with which the soldiers from Vermont defended the integrity of the nation and nobly sustained the honor of the State upon all of these fields of blood.

RECORDS OF TOWN CREDITS.

There has been considerable labor required to be performed during the year in completing and perfecting the records and accounts of the several towns in the State for men furnished and credited during the war. The system adopted, while the war was in progress, was, as has been stated in my previous Annual Reports, to credit to each town every man, by name, furnished by such town, with a note of the company and regiment, to which the man was assigned,—thus enabling the officers of each town, whenever they desired, to ascertain, by examination, whether all the credits, to which the town was entitled, had been given, and to call attention to any omission. From the fact that no complaint of error has been made for the last two years, it is assumed, that these records are as correct as they can be made; and, as between the State and each town in the State, they furnished ample means from time to time, for ascertaining the exact standing of the towns and the surplus credit to which each was entitled, or the deficiency which each was required to supply.

But with the close of the war it became apparent that new questions were to arise, not merely as between the State and the several towns, but also between the towns and the men credited, which would render it necessary to show, in addition to the names of the men credited, the quotas of the towns under each several call, and the call upon which each credit applied, as affecting the right of the men to local bounties, authorized by successive votes of the towns under different calls, and frequently varying very considerably in amount; and for the purpose of facilitating the business of the office in this respect, I have caused to be prepared, from the daily records of town credits, kept as I have above stated, a consolidated journal, showing the enrolment of each town at successive dates, the quota under each call, the number of men furnished, and for what term of service, in each month, with a statement of the excess, or deficiency, at the close of each month, and also a final Ledger account with each town, charging each with the several quotas assessed, and crediting each with the aggregate number furnished under each call, with suitable rests and balances struck from time to time, and the final standing of each town at the close of the war. A statement of these final results will be found published in Appendix F to my Annual Report for the year ending October 1, 1865.

These records may now be regarded as finally closed; and they are of great value, not only as an important and reliable part of the history of the State and of each town in the State, and as precedents for the future, if in the future such precedent shall be required, but also, for present purposes, as the only and most reliable evidence upon which courts of justice can act in suits pending for the recovery of local bounties,—for which purpose transcripts and official certificates have been frequently required to be furnished during the year.

STATE AND TOWN EXPENSES FOR THE WAR.

In December last a communication was received by the Governor from the Chairman of the Select Committee of Congress on the war debts of the loyal States, requesting that a statement be forwarded, at the earliest day practicable, of all money advanced and expended by the State and the several towns in the State in support of the war for the preservation of the Union. This communication having been referred by the Governor to this office, Circular No. 1,—annexed in Appendix A,—was issued December 25, 1865, requesting the selectmen of the several towns to prepare and forward statements, upon blanks furnished, of the expenditures by their respective towns.

From the information thus obtained, and information available from other sources, it appeared that the aggregate expense of the State and of the several towns in the State, during the war, had been $8,814,353 40. Of this amount, the sum of $3,407,172 71, as nearly as could be ascertained and estimated, had been paid, or was to be paid, by the State, as the extra pay of seven dollars per month to enlisted men serving in Vermont organizations,—leaving the sum of $5,407,180 69, as the aggregate expense incurred by the State and by the several towns in the raising of troops to serve in the army of the United States;—of which amount, the sum of $5,215,787 70, was expended by the several municipal corporations in the State for that purpose. Adding to the aggregate amount of expenditure the subsequently accruing pay of seven dollars per month to the enlisted men of the Seventh Regiment, then remaining in service, and the accounts against the United States, which had been presented by the State for payment, but which had been rejected, or suspended, and it makes an aggregate expenditure by the State and the several localities in the State of about $9,087,353 40, for the purposes and as the result of the war.

This statement of expenditures, taken in connection with the Final Statement of troops furnished, which I have referred to above, enables us to realize, to a certain extent, the energy and determination manifested by the State of Vermont in the prosecution of the war. With a Grand List, as the basis of taxation, in 1861, of $970,690 09, a population of 315,116, and an enrolled militia of 36,680, the State has furnished for the war 34,238 men, at an expense of $9,087,353 40 ; and of the 34,238 men furnished, 5,128 were lost by death, killed in action, or died of wounds, disease, or otherwise, and 5,022 men were discharged from the service for wounds, disability, or otherwise,—an aggregate of loss by death or discharge of 10,150 men,—more than two out of every seven of the whole number furnished.

ACCOUNTS AGAINST THE UNITED STATES.

In accordance with the provisions of the act of the Legislature, entitled “ An Act defining the duties of certain State officers, and for the protection and benefit of the Treasury,” approved November 9, 1865, all vouchers for accounts in favor of the State against the United States, remaining in this office at the date of the enactment of that statute, amounting in the aggregate to $62,290 14, have been delivered to the Auditor of Accounts, and all evidence necessary to sustain them has been furnished, so far as is practicable, or has been requested ; and all accounts against the State, remaining in this office unpaid, or which have been since presented for examination and adjustment, have been transmitted to the Auditor.

In my last Annual Report, pages 121–2, I stated the condition, at that time, of the accounts in favor of the Selectmen and Listers of the towns in the State for services and expenses connected with the raising of troops in 1862, for nine months' service. All the accounts of this class, remaining in the office, were prepared in the detailed form necessary, and, having been certified by the Governor, were transmitted, February 9, 1866, to the Adjutant General of the army. The accounts transmitted were as follows : Accounts of Selectmen—for services and expenses in enlisting men for nine months' service, $2016 77 ; for transportation of recruits, $810 54 ; for subsistence of recruits, $1360 94 ; for drafting men, $82 67. Accounts of Listers—for making and returning enrolment in 1862, $17 78. Aggregate, $4288 70.

About the twenty-fifth of May these accounts were mostly returned, through Brevet Colonel William Austine, U. S. Chief Mustering and Disbursing Officer for the State, with objections and disallowances noted as to a portion of the items, and requests for additional explanation as to other items. The amount of the items not allowed was as follows : Accounts of Selectmen—for services and expenses, $94 63 ; for transportation, $793 58 ; for subsistence, $821 86 ; for drafting, $13 69 ; aggregate, $1723 76. The greater portion of the objections were occasioned by the omission of the officer having the examination of the accounts in charge to notice the fact that all the men for nine months' service were enlisted by the Selectmen, and consequently subsisted and transported by them, previous to the organization of the several companies ; and many of the items disallowed were precisely similar, in character and form, to items in the same class of accounts, which have been heretofore allowed and paid to the Selectmen of other towns without objection.

Additional explanations and copies of records and rolls, showing that the objections were taken under a misapprehension of material facts, were prepared as soon as practicable and delivered, together with the returned accounts, to Colonel Austine on the tenth of August, by whom they were again transmitted to the War Department for further action. It is believed that the objections taken have now been mainly obviated, and that the accounts will be paid as soon as the necessary further examinations can be concluded at Washington.

Drafts upon the Treasury of the United States were received on the tenth of September, 1866, in payment of fifteen accounts in favor of individuals for transportation by stage, or team, of re-recruits for nine months' service in 1862, amounting in the aggregate to $543,00, which I had presented for payment March 31, 1863, as I have heretofore reported. These drafts have been transmitted to the several persons entitled to them.

In my last Annual Report, page 122, I referred to the accounts of the several Rail Road Companies in the State for transportation of troops and recruits. These accounts have passed under examination in this office during the present year, and have necessarily required much labor in their adjustment. They were in the form of requisitions for transportation, signed by the proper officers. Previous to November, 1863, existing orders only required that the number of persons to be transported should be stated in the requisition. By General Order No. 366 of the War Department, dated November 13, 1863, it was further required that the requisition should state, in the case of enlisted men, the number of recruits, their company and regiment, and whether prior or subsequent, to the muster in of the organization, to which the recruits belonged, or, if the recruits were for an old organization, whether prior, or subsequent, to the muster in of the recruits themselves. It was not until July, 1864, that any order was announced, requiring that the names of the recruits to be transported should be stated in the requisition. In all cases the requisitions issued conformed to the orders in force at the time.

But when the accounts were presented for payment by the United States, the last order, requiring that the names of the persons to be transported should be stated in the requisitions, was applied to all the requisitions presented for payment, although by far the larger number of them were issued previous to that order, and payment was refused of every one which did not state the names. And a rule was also applied, that no payment would be made by the United States for the transportation of recruits, who, for any cause failed to be mustered into the service of the United States; and the burden was imposed upon the Rail Road Companies of furnishing the necessary information under both of these requirements. This the Companies could not do ; and the accounts were all transmitted to this office and the labor was necessarily required to be performed here.

By comparing the requisitions with the enlistment contracts and Forwarding Rolls, which the Selectmen and Superintendents of Recruiting, under their instructions, had transmitted to this office, and with the Muster In Rolls and rolls of rejected men, which had been received from the several mustering offices, I was enabled to meet satisfactorily these unexpected requirements and to indorse upon nearly every requisition the names of the men transported. The requisitions, thus indorsed, under which only men mustered had been transported, were returned to the U. S. Chief Mustering and Disbursing Officer for the State, and, as no further requirement has been made in respect to them, it is presumed that they have been paid. All requisitions for the transportation of recruits not mustered were transmitted to the Auditor of Accounts against the State. And when, as was frequently the case, the requisition was for the transportation of several recruits, some of whom were mustered and some rejected, the names of the men not mustered were placed upon new requisitions, to which the signatures of the original signers of the requisitions were obtained, and which, when completed, were transmitted to the Auditor ; and the original requisitions, reduced to the number of men transported and actually mustered, were transmitted to the U. S. Chief Mustering and Disbursing Officer. This labor, by the expenditure of much time and care, has been completed, and no accounts of this class now remain in this office for examination, or further attention.

Brevet Colonel William Austine, Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General and Chief Mustering and Disbursing Officer, was relieved from duty at Brattleboro on the thirty-first of August last, the office closed, and the records and files pertaining to it transferred to Captain Norman J. Hall, U. S. Army, Chief Mustering and Disbursing Officer at Boston, Massachusetts.

PRESERVATION OF OFFICIAL RECORDS AND FILES.

The official records and files, which have accumulated in this office during the late war, are now in a condition as nearly complete as they can probably ever be made. They consist of the Rosters of the organizations from this State, in five large volumes, an Alphabetical Index to the Rosters, in two volumes, eight volumes of Records of Official Correspondence, three volumes of Records of Orders, six volumes of Records of Town Credits, the enlistment contracts of nearly thirty thousand men, with the corresponding descriptive and forwarding Rolls, the records of the recruiting service, the Muster In Rolls of all the organizations, of recruits, and of officers promoted, the bi-monthly Muster and Pay Rolls of the several organizations subsequent to August, 1863, the regimental returns and reports during the war, the hospital returns and reports of the State Commissioners at Washington, Philadelphia and New York, the official correspondence during the war, besides various other documents, reports and returns.

These records and files are of inestimable value to the State, to every officer and soldier from the State, and to the representatives of those who have died in the service, as well as to the future historian. If destroyed, they could not be replaced; and the proper measures to be adopted for their care and preservation require serious attention. The necessity for their daily use in the office of the Adjutant and Inspector General, except for the purpose of furnishing certified transcripts for use as evidence in courts of law and for the Pension Office, the office of the Second Auditor in the Treasury Department and the office of the Surgeon General at Washington,—which have been required in great number during the present year,—will have in great part ceased at the close of the year. If, as has been the custom hitherto, the place of their location shall continue to be the place of residence of the Adjutant and Inspector General, and change with each successive change in the office, not only is the risk of their destruction by fire, or other casualty greatly increased, but they will in time become dilapidated, scattered and lost, and the archives of the State will be as destitute of records pertaining to the war of 1861, as they now are of records of the war of 1812 and of the Revolutionary war.

I respectfully recommend, that one of the rooms in the State House at Montpelier, connected with the office of the Adjutant and Inspector General in that building, be made fire proof,—which can be done at reasonable expense,—and that these records and files be required by law to be there deposited and kept, and that the Adjutant and Inspector General be allowed to appoint an assistant, resident at Montpelier, who shall have authority to certify copies of records and files, as may be required.

ORGANIZED MILITIA.

I have presented very fully, in my previous Annual Reports, and more especially in my last Report, my reasons for believing that an efficient and well drilled and disciplined organized militia is as essential an element, under a republican form of government, as either the legislative, executive, or judiciary departments, and that although in theory it may be very plausible to argue, that in the future, the laws will all be readily obeyed, universal peace is to prevail, and no complications are to arise, which shall require, or justify, the expense of maintaining the militia, yet that in fact the same elements exist, and will continue to exist in human nature, in the State, and in the Nation, which have existed, since the government was established, and that the best safeguard against any unlawful interference, by individuals, or by communities, with the rights of the State and of the citizens of the State, consists in a due and proper preparation, at all times, for any such emergency. When the late war commenced, a partial, incomplete and extremely deficient militia organization, then existing, enabled the State to meet the first call for troops with a promptness and success, which could not have been otherwise attained.

The Statute of 1864 prescribed a system for the organization of the Militia, which, in practice, has proved as complete and perfect, as could be desired; and the organization has been maintained, and is now in very complete condition, although but one company drill has been required by law, during the year. With the addition of a regimental drill and parade in each year, the organization can be maintained and its efficiency preserved with comparatively small additional expense. But as the law now stands, in this respect, the organization, only, can be preserved, and that with difficulty, while its efficiency will be greatly impaired, and probably entirely destroyed.

The present strength of the Organized Militia is six thousand nine hundred and ninety, (6,990) officers and men, as shown by the Tabular Statement annexed in Part I of Appendix F. The number present for duty at the June parade and drill, with the exception of two companies, (Co. K, Eleventh Regiment Infantry, and Co. I, First Regiment Cavalry,) from which, through the negligence of their respective commanding officers, no returns have been received, was five thousand six hundred and twenty-one (5,621.) The net amount of fines incurred for delinquencies in the performance of military duty during the year ending December 31, 1865, and reported to the Treasurer for payment into the Treasury of the State, was $1,038 81.

Since the date of my last Report the sections of Light Artillery raised in Stowe, St. Albans and Montpelier, have been assigned to the Battery attached to the First Brigade, and the Battery has been organized by the election of a Captain, and is designated as the First Battery of Light Artillery, Vermont Militia.

I annex, as Part II of Appendix F, a copy of the Roster of the Commissioned Officers of the Organized Militia.

A vacancy exists in the office of Brigadier General of the First Brigade, occasioned by the acceptance of the resignation of Brig. Gen. John L. Barstow for physical disability.

ARMAMENT OF THE STATE.

The armament of the State is as follows :—

- 16,875 Springfield Rifled Muskets, with all equipments and accoutrements complete.
- 2,000 Enfield Rifles, with equipments and accoutrements complete.
- 60 Austrian Rifles.
- 387 Smooth bore muskets.
- 54 Flint lock muskets.
- 1,196 Remington Carbines, with accoutrements, &c., complete.
- 482 Smith's Carbines, complete.
- 1,195 Remington's Revolvers, complete.
- 485 Starr's Revolvers, complete.
- 18 Twelve pounder Napoleon Guns, bronze, with Caissons, Battery wagons, Forges and all harness and other equipments complete.
- 1,696 Cavalry sabres, complete.
- 450 Artillery sabres, complete.
- 5 Six pounder brass guns.
- 2 Six pounder iron guns, unserviceable.
- 1,697 Sets cavalry horse equipments.
- 2,473 Rounds spherical case, (1446 fixed.)
- 1,600 Rounds canister (fixed.)
- 700,882 Rounds musket ammunition, elongated ball cartridges, fixed.
- 142,432 Rounds pistol cartridges, fixed.
- 120,000 Rounds Remington Carbine cartridges, fixed.
- 28,000 Rounds Smith's Carbine cartridges, fixed.

The variation from the report of last year in the number of Springfield Rifled muskets is occasioned by the fact, that boxes, received from the Arsenal and supposed to contain Springfield Rifled Muskets, proved, upon examination, to contain, in part, Austrian Rifles and smooth bore muskets.

COMMISSIONS.

The whole number of commissions issued from this office, from October 1, 1865, to October 1, 1866, has been seventy-six. Of this number nineteen have been issued to officers of organizations in the service of the United States, and fifty-seven to officers of the organized militia.

THE FENIANS.

In the early part of the month of June last, an attempt was made to organize, upon the borders of this State, an expedition, consisting of men of Irish birth, known as Fenians, into the adjoining Province of Canada East. The movement commenced on the first of June, and about fifteen hundred men, from various States, assembled in Fairfield, Franklin, and in and about St. Albans. They were poorly supplied with arms and ammunition, and although they moved across the line into Canada on the seventh of June, the expedition proved a failure, and they returned into this State on the ninth of June. The United States' Government interfered early to prevent any infraction of the neutrality laws; troops, of the Regular Army, were stationed at St. Albans, Swanton and Franklin, and all the protection was afforded to the citizens of this State, which was required,—so that, although the movement was carefully observed by the officers of the State, no occasion was found to exist for any action upon their part. While the men engaged in the expedition remained within this State, they were commendably quiet and orderly, and upon their return from Canada they proceeded directly to St. Albans, where they were furnished with rations and transportation by the United States' officers, upon condition, acceded to, that the expedition should be abandoned, and they were sent at once to their respective homes, and had all left the State by the eleventh of June. It is not known that any injury was committed upon either the persons, or property, of citizens of this State, while the men remained within the State.

SUMMARY FOR THE YEAR.

The labor required to be performed in the office during the year, though not equal in amount to that required while the war was in progress, has been varied and responsible. It has consisted mainly in the completing and perfecting of the military records of the State. For this purpose all Rolls and returns received during the war have been carefully examined and verified, and the Rosters, which, from almost constant daily use for four years and the frequent and varied entries and alterations required to be made upon them, had come to be in poor condition, have been compared with the original sources of information, and carefully transcribed, in such manner as to show readily the entire military history of every officer and man in the service, so far as it is important, or could be ascertained. In addition, much labor has been performed in reference to the accounts remaining in the office at the close of the last year and those since presented, and especially upon the accounts in favor of the several Rail Road Companies in the State for the transportation of troops, in placing them in such form and ascertaining and certifying upon them such facts as were required by the accounting officers of the General Government. I have been surprised at the great number of applications received during the year from the Pension Office, the Second Auditor in the Treasury Department, and the Surgeon General of the army, for information in respect to the military record of soldiers who have been in service from this State, as affecting their claims for pensions and arrearages of pay and bounty. It was to be supposed that all material facts were matters of record in the office of the Adjutant General of the Army; but I learn that those applications for transcripts of the State records are only made in cases where the records of the War Department fail to furnish the necessary information. In nearly every case I have been able to furnish the required facts; and this evidences the present practical value of the records and files in this office, in the manner in which they have been kept, classified and preserved, to the soldiers from the State and their representatives. The Roster of the Organized Militia has been kept corrected during the year, from the returns received, and the Muster and Pay Rolls have been carefully examined, verified, certified and transmitted to the Treasurer for payment.

As heretofore, I have been indebted to Brevet Colonel William Austine, United States Chief Mustering and Disbursing Officer for this State, while he remained on duty within the State, for the interest which he has manifested and the assistance which he has afforded in the completion of the records of the office, and the closing of the accounts presented for adjustment.

Colonel Austine has called my attention to a paragraph upon page eight of my last Annual Report, in which it is stated that the quotas of the several towns, under the call for troops of December 19, 1864, were assessed by the A. A. Provost Marshal General for the State, in disregard of the request of the Governor for delay, until he could communicate with the War Department, and has transmitted to me evidence, that the request of the Governor was at once communicated by him to the Provost Marshal General, and that it was by express direction of that officer that the quotas were assessed, as stated. It is due to Colonel Austine that the paragraph should be corrected in accordance with the fact.

I have retained during the year two of the clerks, Henry B. Bradley and Henry S. Knight, who have been heretofore employed in the office; Eugene Putnam continued in the office until the first of July; and James V. Parker was employed until August. I am under great obligations to each of them for faithful and efficient service and valuable assistance. Mr. Bradley has been the Chief Clerk in the office since November, 1861, and his familiarity with the records and files and with the entire business of the office has afforded me very great advantage in the performance of my official duties. The services of Mr. Putnam were indispensable, while he remained, and cannot be appreciated by me too highly ; and Mr. Knight is entitled to great commendation for the very beautiful manner in which he has transcribed the Rosters and the care which he has taken to verify their correctness.

CONCLUSION.

The State of Vermont, by her wise policy and her prompt action, the bravery of her soldiers and the energy and determination of her citizens during the last five years, has made a proud addition to her previously high reputation. Essentially an agricultural community, without experience in or preparation for war, every man called for has been promptly furnished and every dollar necessary has been as promptly expended. Two measures, adopted by the Legislature at the commencement, with wise forethought, have contributed largely to the result,—the provision for State pay, by which every enlisted man in a Vermont organization received a monthly payment of seven dollars, in addition to his pay from the United States,—and the provision for State aid,—under which every soldier, having a family, could remain in the service with the undoubting certainty that their necessities would be relieved, and their comfort be provided for by the State, which had assumed their charge.

The rebellion has been suppressed, the army has been disbanded, the soldiers from Vermont, who survived the hardships of the camp and the perils of the battle-field, have returned to their avocations of peace and mingled again with the communities, which sent them forth to protect the nation's integrity, and there is little left now, save upon the imperishable page of history, to remind us that we have passed through one of the most bloody wars that the world has ever witnessed. Deeply grateful that I have been permitted to record this final result, grateful to Your Excellency, and to those who have preceded you in office during the war, for the kind consideration which has been extended to me in the performance of the arduous and responsible duties which have devolved upon me, I respectfully submit this my final Report.

PETER T. WASHBURN,
Adjutant and Inspector General.

STATE OF VERMONT.

ADJUTANT AND INSPECTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE, {
Woodstock, December 25th, 1865. }

To the Selectmen of the several towns in this State:

The Governor of this State has been requested by the Chairman of the Select Committee of Congress on the war debts of the loyal States, to communicate to the Committee, at the earliest day practicable, a statement, among other things, of all money advanced, or expended, by the several towns in this State in support of the late war for the preservation of the Union.

This request is undoubtedly made in anticipation of some legislation, at the present session of Congress, for refunding, in some form, the amount thus expended, and with a view of obtaining all the information, upon which such legislation should be based; and it is of great importance that the information should be furnished as soon as possible.

The Selectmen of each town in this State are therefore requested, at the earliest day practicable, and by or before the 10th day of January, A. D. 1866, to forward by mail to this office, upon the enclosed blanks, a statement, in duplicate, of the entire amount expended by such town for the prosecution of the war.

This statement will embrace the following classes of expenditure, viz.:

The aggregate amount paid by the town, or which now stands as a debt against the town,—

1. For bounties to recruits mustered into the service of the United States;
2. For expenses of enlisting recruits;
3. For expense of subsistence of recruits;
4. For expense of transportation of recruits;
5. For any other expenses incurred by the town for the support of the war, specifying particularly for what purposes the expenditure was made.

The items of expense need not be stated, but only the aggregate expense under each class.

If any sums have been paid by the town to drafted men, who furnished substitutes, or to substitutes themselves, such payments should be separately stated, and not mingled with the amount paid as bounties to volunteers.

Expenses which have been repaid to the town, or to the Selectmen of the town, by the State, or by the United States, and expenses for which claims have been heretofore forwarded to this office for presentation for adjustment by the United States, should not be included in the statement now requested. The amount of such expenses can be better obtained from the claims heretofore presented.

BY ORDER OF THE GOVERNOR,

PETER T. WASHBURN,

Adjutant and Inspector General.

"The selectmen of the several towns and the common-council-men of the several cities in this State, or, if in any city there shall be no common-council-men, the aldermen of such city, shall, on the first day of April in each year, carefully examine and correct the record of the enrolment of the militia of their respective towns and cities, observing, in the performance of such duty, the instructions contained in sections two to thirteen, inclusive, of General Order No. 8 of the Governor of Vermont, dated March 28th, 1865, and shall, immediately thereafter, and on or before the tenth day of April, in each year, transmit to the Adjutant and Inspector General a full and perfect return of all corrections and additions, made by them, as required by section fourteen of said General Order No. 8.

"So much of existing orders, as provides that corrections of the enrolment, as aforesaid, shall be made and returned by the said selectmen and common-council-men on the first day of January, July and October in each year, is hereby rescinded."

A supply of the proper blanks for the "Return of Corrections," therein provided for, is herewith transmitted. It is desirable that such returns be made promptly at the time specified, in order that the State Enrolment records may be immediately perfected.

STATE OF VERMONT.

ADJUTANT AND INSPECTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE, }
Woodstock, May 15, 1866. }

[Circular No. 3.]

In view of the near approach of the time for the annual parade of the companies of the organized militia of this State, officers are reminded of the duties which will devolve upon them at that time.

The law requires, that the first sergeant of each company shall give notice of the time and place of parade of such company, by posting up the order for that purpose two weeks previous, at four public places within the limits of the company, which shall be sufficient notice to every member to appear.

Under the present regulations, the "Returns of Alterations" and "Returns of Public Property," heretofore required on the first days of January, April, July and October, in each year, are to be made only once in each year—within ten days after the first Tuesday of June.

Muster and Pay rolls of the various companies, for service at the June parade, should be made and forwarded at the earliest date possible after such drill. In preparing such rolls, the signatures of the men are to be inserted under the heading, "Received Pay of," and each is to be witnessed by a commissioned officer.

The following is a recapitulation of the "Returns" to be made at that time, with directions for their transmission:

1. "Return of Alterations and Strength," showing all changes since last preceding return, with a statement of the strength of the command at date, to be made in duplicate, by Company Commanders, and forwarded,—one copy to the Adjutant and Inspector General, and one copy to the commanding officer of the regiment.

2. "Regimental Return," showing the strength of the Regiment by companies, and all changes among commissioned officers since last return—to be prepared by the commanding officer of each regiment immediately after the receipt of the "Company Returns," and transmitted to the commanding officer of the Brigade.

3. "Brigade Return," showing the strength of the Brigade, and all changes among commissioned officers, to be made by the commanding officer of the Brigade immediately upon receipt of the regimental returns and transmitted to the Major General,—under whose direction a similar "Return," showing the strength of the Division, and all changes among commissioned officers, is to be prepared, immediately upon receipt by him of the Brigade returns, and forwarded to these headquarters.

4. "Returns of Public Property," showing the uniforms and arms of the commissioned officers of the company, and accounting for all public property issued for the use of the command, to be made by company commanders, one copy to be retained on file, one copy to be transmitted to the Adjutant and Inspector General, one copy to the Quartermaster General, and one copy to the regimental Quartermaster,—by whom a similar "Return," accounting for all public property issued for the use of the regiment, is to be prepared immediately upon the receipt of the company returns, one copy to be sent to the Quartermaster General, one copy to the Adjutant and Inspector General, and one copy to be retained on file.

5. Muster and Pay Rolls, to be prepared by company commanders, one copy to be retained on file, one copy transmitted to the commanding officer of the regiment, and two copies to the Adjutant and Inspector General.

6. If changes have occurred among the non-commissioned officers of a company, the commanding officer should make a "Return," in duplicate, showing such changes, one copy of which should be transmitted to the Adjutant and Inspector General, and the other to the regimental commander.

Enlistment papers and Descriptive Rolls of all recruits not previously reported should be transmitted, with the Muster and Pay Rolls to this office.

A supply of blanks for the current year is herewith forwarded.

It is hoped that each company commanding officer will be prompt in the performance of all his duties connected with the June parade and drill, and especially in preparing and forwarding without unnecessary delay every return which is required. If this is done strictly in compliance with existing regulations, the records in the office of the Adjutant and Inspector General, and those of the several regimental and brigade commanders, and of the commanding officer of the division, can be at once placed in proper form, the necessary abstracts and returns prepared by them, and the men promptly paid for the services performed by them at the drill.

BY ORDER OF THE GOVERNOR,

PETER T. WASHBURN,

Adjutant and Inspector General.

REPORT OF W. C. HOLBROOK, COLONEL SEVENTH VERMONT VETERAN VOLUNTEERS.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., June 1, 1865.

P. T. WASHBURN,

Adjutant and Inspector General, Woodstock, Vt.

GENERAL.—I have the honor to submit the following detailed report of the part taken by my regiment in the siege of Spanish Fort, and in the subsequent operations about Mobile.

The regiment left Mobile Point, with the division to which it was attached (3d Division, 13th Army Corps, Brig. Gen. W. P. Benton commanding,) March 17th, and arrived before Spanish Fort on the morning of March 27th, 1865. No fighting occurred on the march to Spanish Fort, and, with the exception of a descent made on the division train near Fish River, by a squad of rebel cavalry, nothing transpired to relieve the usual routine of marching.

Early in the morning of March 27th the division was massed and moved forward,—each regiment in line of battle. After marching nearly a mile, our skirmishers met those of the enemy, whereupon sharp firing commenced and the rebels were pushed back to within a short distance of their works. Our brigade (the second,) was not halted until we were within five hundred yards of the rebel earthworks. The men were ordered to lie down, in which position they remained during the day. The colors of the respective regiments, however, were planted in the ground, and served as targets for rebel shot and shell, which they plied us with most vigorously till nightfall. As soon as the brigade was halted, I sent forward a company, (Co. G, Capt. Salmon Dutton,) to relieve a portion of the skirmish line. He remained out until after dark, expending most of his ammunition, and having several men wounded,—whereupon I sent forward Co. D, Capt. Geo. E. Croff, to relieve him.

During the night Capt. Croff succeeded in driving back the rebels in his front and advanced with his men, to within ten paces of the rebel works, where he remained several hours, harassing the enemy exceedingly. At daylight the rebels ranged two or three field pieces upon him and raked his position with canister. He remained in the immediate vicinity, however, for some time, his men protecting themselves by rolling behind logs and stumps and picking off the rebel gunners, whenever they got an opportunity. Capt. Croff brought in much valuable information, and was highly praised by brigade and division commanders for his handsome behavior.

The regiment, during the night, remained in the trenches. On the morning of the 29th I again went into the trenches with my regiment. In the evening I sent forward Co. B, Capt. Jackson V. Parker, to relieve Co. — on the skirmish line. About midnight the rebels made a furious assault on our skirmishers and succeeded in creating some little confusion, without driving our men back much. There was such an intricacy of fallen timber and trees, that it was with the greatest difficulty that the men could be kept well in hand; but Capt. Parker showed great skill and bravery in keeping his men together and in rallying fugitives from other regiments and by his personal courage soon re-established the line. The following evening he was relieved by Co. K, Capt. Riley B. Stearns.

REPORT OF W. C. HOLBROOK, COLONEL SEVENTH VERMONT VETERAN VOLUNTEERS.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., June 1, 1865.

P. T. WASHBURN,

Adjutant and Inspector General, Woodstock, Vt.

GENERAL.—I have the honor to submit the following detailed report of the part taken by my regiment in the siege of Spanish Fort, and in the subsequent operations about Mobile.

The regiment left Mobile Point, with the division to which it was attached (3d Division, 13th Army Corps, Brig. Gen. W. P. Benton commanding,) March 17th, and arrived before Spanish Fort on the morning of March 27th, 1865. No fighting occurred on the march to Spanish Fort, and, with the exception of a descent made on the division train near Fish River, by a squad of rebel cavalry, nothing transpired to relieve the usual routine of marching.

Early in the morning of March 27th the division was massed and moved forward,—each regiment in line of battle. After marching nearly a mile, our skirmishers met those of the enemy, whereupon sharp firing commenced and the rebels were pushed back to within a short distance of their works. Our brigade (the second,) was not halted until we were within five hundred yards of the rebel earthworks. The men were ordered to lie down, in which position they remained during the day. The colors of the respective regiments, however, were planted in the ground, and served as targets for rebel shot and shell, which they plied us with most vigorously till nightfall. As soon as the brigade was halted, I sent forward a company, (Co. G, Capt. Salmon Dutton,) to relieve a portion of the skirmish line. He remained out until after dark, expending most of his ammunition, and having several men wounded,—whereupon I sent forward Co. D, Capt. Geo. E. Croff, to relieve him.

During the night Capt. Croff succeeded in driving back the rebels in his front and advanced with his men, to within ten paces of the rebel works, where he remained several hours, harassing the enemy exceedingly. At daylight the rebels ranged two or three field pieces upon him and raked his position with canister. He remained in the immediate vicinity, however, for some time, his men protecting themselves by rolling behind logs and stumps and picking off the rebel gunners, whenever they got an opportunity. Capt. Croff brought in much valuable information, and was highly praised by brigade and division commanders for his handsome behavior.

The regiment, during the night, remained in the trenches. On the morning of the 29th I again went into the trenches with my regiment. In the evening I sent forward Co. B, Capt. Jackson V. Parker, to relieve Co. — on the skirmish line. About midnight the rebels made a furious assault on our skirmishers and succeeded in creating some little confusion, without driving our men back much. There was such an intricacy of fallen timber and trees, that it was with the greatest difficulty that the men could be kept well in hand; but Capt. Parker showed great skill and bravery in keeping his men together and in rallying fugitives from other regiments and by his personal courage soon re-established the line. The following evening he was relieved by Co. K, Capt. Riley B. Stearns.

During the night Capt. Stearns advanced some twenty yards nearer the rebel works, where he dug new pits, and was in fact that much in advance of the regular brigade line, and in such a position as to enable the rebels to get a cross fire upon him from two batteries. In the morning I observed the enemy shelled that portion of the line incessantly; this fire was kept up at intervals during the day. Shortly after noon the grass and fallen timber in his rear took fire from the rebel shells, and his supports, from some of the Western regiments, began to fall back. In a short time the entire line was enveloped in a dense cloud of smoke, under the cover of which the sortie was made, which resulted in his capture. It is a wonder to me, that he was able to hold his position as long as he did. Corporal Crothers bravely volunteered to return for assistance, and after very many exceedingly narrow escapes he succeeded in gaining our line; but by that time it was useless to send forward reinforcements. The cannonading at this time was terrific, the rebels having opened along our entire line to cover the sortie. I would respectfully call your attention to the report of Capt. Stearns for more full particulars of his capture.* The Commanding General of the rebel forces compliments him and his men for their tenacity and bravery, and even says he felt obliged either to dislodge or capture them. I regard the affair as one of the most brilliant of the siege, and Capt. Stearns and his men deserve the commendation of every true and brave soldier.

During the latter days of the siege the regiment was engaged night and day in running saps, making approaches, &c. &c., and not unfrequently beating back the rebel sharp shooters and skirmishers. Several men were wounded in these dangerous operations.

After the fall of Spanish Fort the regiment accompanied the division to Blakeley and was ordered, on its arrival there, to take part in the assault: but before we could reach the ground, the works were carried by that gallant portion of the army especially assigned for the purpose.

We next returned to Stark's Landing, where we were embarked on transports and the next day landed on the western shore, about five miles from the City. My regiment was one of the first to land. That night the division encamped about a mile from Mobile, and the following day marched through the city to a station on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, called Whistler. As we were entering the town, our skirmishers were suddenly attacked, and immediately orders were received to unslung knapsacks and move to the front at double quick. My men obeyed with great spirit and alacrity, and we were soon under a heavy fire: fortunately the woods were very dense, which saved many from being hit. The 91st Illinois Vols. got entangled in a thick undergrowth, and my regiment was ordered forward to support the skirmishers. As we came out of the woods, upon a clearing, the rebels retreated in the most precipitate manner. Capt. Croff again distinguished himself on the skirmish line.

This was the last fight the regiment was in, in the vicinity of Mobile.

During the campaign a bitter and unpleasant feeling existed between the Eastern and Western troops in the Corps, and I regret to say malicious and unjust aspersions, to the prejudice of Eastern troops, were too frequently circulated. In fact, I have been informed, that these unfounded reports have reached the State, and that many erroneous ideas have been formed therefrom. I desire to state for the information of every one interested in the good name and reputation of Vermont soldiers, that any report, that reflects, in the slightest degree, upon the efficiency and gallantry of the regiment, is totally false and untrue.

In conclusion, I have only to say, that, from Brigade to Corps commander, each and every one has personally assured me, that they had perfect confidence in my regiment and had on several occasions selected it for dangerous positions, in which they feared to trust a less disciplined regiment; and to their testimony I would add my own, and say, that every where, and under all circumstances, both officers and men have shown courage, obedience and proficiency in their profession, and in no instance did they ever behave in a discreditable or unsoldierlike manner.

*The report of Capt. Stearns was published in Appendix C, of the Adjutant and Inspector General's Report of 1865, page 13.

I have the honor to be, General,

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

W. C. HOLBROOK,

Col. 7th Vt. Vet. Vols.
